PLACE: Langton Barry's Office

PERSONS PRESENT: Barry, []

COVER USED: None

DISCUSSION:

[] and brought a list of some 14 items to be discussed with State, such as integration, the Ambassador to Honduras, etc. Barry promptly disqualified himself from handling all matters of detail, and told [] to take them up with Ledy. Only if Ledy got into a jam would he, Barry, give matters a push with Park Armstrong, Asst Secretary of State for Intelligence; even then, Barry would handle only FP matters and FP personnel problems, while FI problems and personnel would be handled directly between CIA and Armstrong.

Barry called a Mr. Chuck Lee, of Armstrong's office, who is responsible for integration problems. Barry also called Ledy, and arranged a meeting of Lee, Ledy and [] for 1600, 25 November in Ledy's office.

On the matter of the new Ambassador to Honduras, Barry said he was still undergoing FBI check. Barry had not spoken to General Smith, as yet. Smith and DCI were to discuss the matter at lunch, 25 November, but General Smith was ill with the flu and was not expected back at work before Saturday. Barry called DD/P's office to leave a message for JCK; when JCK called back, Barry was going to tell him to tell DCI not to discuss the Honduran Ambassador affair with anyone else from State.

Barry shows [] is (Barry's) letter of instructions, which indicated that Barry had world-wide responsibilities and would really deal only with the broadest of policy matters.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. That [] on 30 November remind Barry to talk to Gen. Smith, if this is still necessary.

2. That the nature of working relationships with State be
